

360 Assessment Options

Option 1: DiSC 363 (with/without debrief)
Option 2: Newleaf 360 (with/without debrief)

The benefits of a 360 assessment:

It is unlikely that leaders have reached their positions in an organization by chance. They likely have some understanding of appropriate leadership behavior and probably have a pretty good idea of their own strengths and needs. Honest and reliable feedback is necessary to test one's own perceptions, recognize previously unseen strengths, and become aware of blind spots in one's self-perceptions.

A 360 feedback survey offers others an opportunity to give leaders accurate and helpful feedback in a constructive and confidential manner. In a 360 feedback survey, the leader and a group of other raters answer specific questions about the leader's performance. These raters are chosen from those with whom a leader works day-to-day and typically include supervisors, direct reports, peers, and customers.

There are eight clear benefits of 360 feedback:

1. Increases self-awareness
2. Clarifies behaviors
3. Measures "how" things get done as opposed to "what"
4. Promotes dialogue
5. Improves working relationships
6. Encourages personal development
7. Increases accountability
8. Enhances performance
